I understand that in the event the Participant Enrollment Form is incomplete, or it is not received by Great-West's Home Office in Englewood, Colorado prior to the receipt of any deposits, Great-West will retain all monies received and allocate them to the default investment options which is selected above. Once the participant's account has been established, I understand that it is the participant's responsibility to call KeyTalk® in order to transfer monies from the default investment option. Also, I understand all contributions received after the participant's account is established will be applied to the investment options the participant has selected.

Note: Please be advised of the following provisions based upon when the paperwork is received:

- If the Transfer/Direct Rollover Form is incomplete, or it is not received by Great-West's Home Office in Englewood, Colorado prior to the receipt of any transferred or direct rollover assets and an account has not been established, monies will be allocated to the default investment option which is selected above.
- If the Transfer/Direct Rollover Form is incomplete, or it is not received by Great-West's Home Office in Englewood, Colorado prior to the receipt of any transferred or direct rollover assets and an account has been established, monies will be allocated according to the allocations on the Participant Enrollment Form.
- If the transfer/direct rollover assets are received more than 180 calendar days after Great-West receives the Transfer/Direct Rollover Form, monies will be allocated according to the allocations on the Participant Enrollment form and the participant would need to call KeyTalk® to make any changes.
